ORDER

The present case came up for hearing today on 07.04.2022. None present from both the sides. Perusal of the order sheet reveals that nobody is appearing on behalf of petitioner and private respondents for the last five consecutive hearings. From the continuous non appearance of both petitioner and private respondents, it is inferred that petitioner has lost interest to prosecute his case and continuance of proceedings will result in the wastage of precious time of the court. Further due to absence of parties, this court is constrained to pass order on merits.

In view of above, the appeal is dismissed in default due to non prosecution on behalf of the petitioner. The stay granted by this court, if any, shall stand vacated. The record file of the court below be sent back and the case file be consigned to records after due completion but after waiting for the statutory period of 30 days fixed for restoration.
