ORDER

The present application for restoration of the above titled appeal which has been dismissed in default for non prosecution on behalf of appellant came up for hearing today on 17.11.2022. Perusal of order sheet of the case file reveals that neither the petitioner nor his counsel have been attending the court from the last several hearings consecutively and today i.e. 17.11.2022 also they have not caused appearance in the court, from which it is inferred that the petitioners have lost interest to prosecute this case and further hearings in the matter would result in wastage of the precious time of Court. Therefore, the present application for restoration of above titled appeal is dismissed in default for non-prosecution on behalf of petitioner. The interim/stay order issued by this court, if any, shall stand vacated. The case file be consigned to records after due completion but after waiting for the statutory period of 30 days fixed for restoration. It is however made clear that the court has not expressed any opinion regarding merits of the case.
