IN THE MATTER OF:

Revision petition against order dated 21-11-2019 passed by Court of Learned Deputy Commissioner, Poonch in case titled "Mohd. Niaz Khan V/s Anayat Ullah Khan" which is passed without giving any notice to the petitioner and against the settled position of law.

With further prayer of transferring the case back to the court of Learned Additional Deputy Commissioner, Poonch from the court of respondent No.2, as per SRO-536 of December, 1999. Learned Additional Deputy Commissioner, Poonch is competent authority for hearing appeal in the capacity of the Collector.

ORDER

The present revision petition came up for hearing today on 31.03.2022. Perusal of order sheet of the case file reveals that neither the petitioner / his counsel nor respondents / their counsel have been attending the court after the filing of petition on 06.03.2020, from which it is inferred that the petitioner has lost interest to prosecute this case and further hearings in the matter would result in wastage of the precious time of Court.

Perusal of the record placed on the case file reveals that the case is still pending in the court of Deputy Commissioner, Poonch. In view of the fact that proceedings are still continuing in the court of Deputy Commissioner, Poonch even after 21.11.2019, the revision petition is premature and is as such dismissed. The petitioner shall represent before the Deputy Commissioner, Poonch who will take the appropriate call with regard to the jurisdiction as per the relevant provisions. The interim order issued by this court, if any, shall stand vacated. The case file be consigned to records after due completion. One copy of the order shall go to Deputy Commissioner, Poonch for information and necessary action.
