ORDER

13.12.2021:

File presented for hearing. Parties called. Appellants as well as Ld counsel for the appellants absent. Perusal of file and order sheet, reveals that neither the appellants nor their counsel is appearing in this case from many hearings. It appears that the appellants are not interested to pursue the case. The matter cannot be decided on merits due to non-appearance of the parties. As such the court is constrained to consign the case to records. In view of above, the appeal is dismissed in default due to non prosecution of the case. Interim direction, if any, issued by this court shall stand vacated and file be consigned to records after due completion. The reader shall ensure to provide the copy of the order to Assistant Commissioner (Revenue) Poonch and Incharge website, for information of parties.
