ORDER

29.3.2022. File presented for hearing. Parties called. Applicant as well as Ld. counsel for the applicant absent. Ld. Counsel for respondent absent. Perusal of record on file and order sheet reveals that neither the applicant nor his counsel is appearing in this case from many hearings. It appears that the applicant is not interested to pursue the case. The matter cannot be decided on merits due to non-appearance of the parties. Further continuance of proceeding in this instant case would only be wastage of time of this court. As such the court is constrained to consign the case to records. In view of above, the application is dismissed in default due to non prosecution of the case. Interim direction/order if any, issued by this court shall stand vacated and file be consigned to records after due completion.
